

Media Release

August 11, 2010

Contact: Peggy Gray, 850-936-5557 or webmaster@panhandlebutterflyhouse.org

The Panhandle Butterfly House is a program of:

UF/IFAS Cooperative Extension Service

Florida Master Gardeners

Santa Rosa Clean Community System, Inc.

The Foundation for the Gator Nation

an Equal Opportunity Institution

Monarch Madness Butterfly Festival Photo Contest

The Panhandle Butterfly House is pleased to announce its first Monarch Madness Photo Contest.

In celebration of the annual monarch butterfly migration through our area the Panhandle Butterfly House will hold its 4th Annual Monarch Madness Butterfly Festival on October 8 and 9, 2010.

A new feature is a photo contest. Photos of butterflies, larvae, pupae and/or butterfly eggs may be submitted from August 21 through September 20, 2010. Contest is open to ALL photographers, professional and amateur. There are five entry categories: professional adult, amateur adult, and students (ages 6-10, 11-14 and 15-18).

There will be two grand prize winners and five runners-up. Grand prize winners (one adult and one student) will receive $50.00 and $25.00 in Panhandle Butterfly House merchandise and runners-up (one in each of the five categories) will receive $25.00 in PBH merchandise.

Awards will be presented and photos displayed at the Monarch Madness Butterfly Festival at the Panhandle Butterfly House on October 8 and 9, 2010.

For details and entry form visit www.panhandlebutterflyhouse.org or email webmaster@panhandlebutterflyhouse.org or call 850-623-3868.

The Panhandle Butterfly House provides our area residents with a wonderful learning opportunity focusing on Florida Butterflies and their habitats.